

May 2011

Hello everyone and welcome!

This is the first letter that I have posted to our website and I encourage you to check back for updates.

We have had a long winter and now spring is finally here ... depending on the day that you look outside!

Please remember to try and attend Wing Ding in Knoxville, TN from July 6 – 9 2011. There will be a variety of courses that you may take and events to participate in that are fun and educational.

The officer training program is something that all officers must complete and we are making plans to arrange training for this requirement as soon as possible.

Thanks for your time in reading this brief introduction.

More to follow...
